What does Yunnan bring to CII

Yunnan to build everlasting China-South Asia expo

On November 6th, the Yunnan provincial government, China International Import Expo (CIIE) organizing committee, and the Shanghai Municipal Museum and the US Consul-General to Chengdu jointly held a press conference to introduce the Yunnan Pavilion of the China-South Asia Expo held at the Shanghai National Exhibition Centre. It will function as a trading centre.

The promotion held with the theme “Yunnan is building itself to its ecological brilliance to the province” at the Shanghai Municipal Museum and the US Consul-General to Chengdu, introduced the oriental flower auction market, the China-South Asia Expo. The pavilion will help to showcase everlasting China-South Asian countries, as well as what the Yunnan Pavilion with the strongest sense of innovation and potential can do to make its way into the world. It has been recognized over the years as a major contributor to the development of China’s economic development, which is not just the result of its own development momentum and improvements, but also the development quality. A win-win situation will be established, and the Yunnan Pavilion is not a city, it is a province. The Yunnan Pavilion is a symbol of Chinese culture.

On the 2nd China-South Asia Expo (CSA), is one of the most prominent events of 2019, besides the two world powers, China and Cambodia, the cooperation between the two countries has gradually become stronger. China’s favourable import policies and concerned development work have strengthened our confidence in the Yunnan Pavilion, market,” said Yunnan Pavilion Director, Professor, and managing director of National Group of China, Golden Door Rice Co., Ltd.

Running International Flower Auction and Trading Centre, Yanghe Express Flower auction market in Asia. During peak hours, the pavilion will export flowers to 15,000 countries and regions. Among them, 20 percent to 30 percent are exported to South and Southeast Asian countries.

As the opening up of the Chinese market, the foreign goods such as Japanese Siam orchids and Indian blue crabs have caught the Chinese people’s heart. Meanwhile, the bazaar of high-end flowers and exotic plants. Yunnan Pavilion has been exploring the North American, European, South and Southeast Asian markets, and has developed a great number of cooperation opportunities.

While the 16th China-South Asia Expo is attended by more than 3,000 companies from over 130 countries and regions, the China Sth Asia Expo Pavilion will attract more than ten million flowers from all over the world. In particular, the foreign goods like Japanese Siam orchids and Indian blue crabs have caught the Chinese people’s heart.

Yunnan Pavilion harvests from a special invited publication during the China-South Asia Expo. Running (Photo by Xinhua News Agency)

Editors Note: The China International Import Expo (CII) has drawn a lot of attention around the world. November 5th marks the 1st anniversary of the China-South Asia Expo, offering a unique opportunity to see the development of all nations could be realized. Every country makes money, the wealth gap is bridged and all nations prosper. Let’s see what event and product Yunnan Pavilion delegation brought to the CII.

1 Starbucks to promote Yunnan coffee brands to the world

“I wish Starbucks can have more coffee brands to the world and China-South Asia Expo to promote Yunnan coffee beans to the world,” said Lobsang Tashi, chairman of the Diqing Inheritor (2): Lobsang Tashi, said proudly that Yunnan Pavilion wishes to its readers: “U.S.-Yunnan relations are broad and various; it reflects the historical and cultural heritages, the app is released for public use on the mobile phone. The Yunnan Pavilion in the app includes the key scenic areas.

A small town located in Yunnan’s biggest coffee growing area, Yunnan is a place with great potential for China’s coffee development. Starbucks is willing to cooperate with Yunnan Pavilion to further enhance the marketing of Chinese coffee brands in the world.

The China Pavilion is a combination of the Yunnan Pavilion, the Shanghai Municipal Museum and the US Consul-General to Chengdu, showing the oriental flower auction market. It has been the largest gathering of foreign goods since the Yunnan Pavilion was established by the Shanghai Municipal Museum and the US Consul-General to Chengdu.

Yunnan Pavilion has become a symbol of Yunnan Pavilion, which is not just a place, but a province. The Yunnan Pavilion is a symbol of Chinese culture.

On the 2nd China-South Asia Expo (CSA), is one of the most prominent events of 2019, besides the two world powers, China and Cambodia, the cooperation between the two countries has gradually become stronger. China’s favourable import policies and concerned development work have strengthened our confidence in the Yunnan Pavilion, market,” said Yunnan Pavilion Director, Professor, and managing director of National Group of China, Golden Door Rice Co., Ltd.

Running International Flower Auction and Trading Centre, Yanghe Express Flower auction market in Asia. During peak hours, the pavilion will export flowers to 15,000 countries and regions. Among them, 20 percent to 30 percent are exported to South and Southeast Asian countries.

As the opening up of the Chinese market, the foreign goods such as Japanese Siam orchids and Indian blue crabs have caught the Chinese people’s heart. Meanwhile, the bazaar of high-end flowers and exotic plants. Yunnan Pavilion has been exploring the North American, European, South and Southeast Asian markets, and has developed a great number of cooperation opportunities.

While the 16th China-South Asia Expo is attended by more than 3,000 companies from over 130 countries and regions, the China Sth Asia Expo Pavilion will attract more than ten million flowers from all over the world. In particular, the foreign goods like Japanese Siam orchids and Indian blue crabs have caught the Chinese people’s heart.

Yunnan Pavilion harvests from a special invited publication during the China-South Asia Expo. Running (Photo by Xinhua News Agency)

Editors Note: The China International Import Expo (CII) has drawn a lot of attention around the world. November 5th marks the 1st anniversary of the China-South Asia Expo, offering a unique opportunity to see the development of all nations could be realized. Every country makes money, the wealth gap is bridged and all nations prosper. Let’s see what event and product Yunnan Pavilion delegation brought to the CII.

1 Starbucks to promote Yunnan coffee brands to the world

“I wish Starbucks can have more coffee brands to the world and China-South Asia Expo to promote Yunnan coffee beans to the world,” said Lobsang Tashi, chairman of the Diqing Inheritor (2): Lobsang Tashi, said proudly that Yunnan Pavilion wishes to its readers: “U.S.-Yunnan relations are broad and various; it reflects the historical and cultural heritages, the app is released for public use on the mobile phone. The Yunnan Pavilion in the app includes the key scenic areas.

A small town located in Yunnan’s biggest coffee growing area, Yunnan is a place with great potential for China’s coffee development. Starbucks is willing to cooperate with Yunnan Pavilion to further enhance the marketing of Chinese coffee brands in the world.

The China Pavilion is a combination of the Yunnan Pavilion, the Shanghai Municipal Museum and the US Consul-General to Chengdu, showing the oriental flower auction market. It has been the largest gathering of foreign goods since the Yunnan Pavilion was established by the Shanghai Municipal Museum and the US Consul-General to Chengdu.

Yunnan Pavilion has become a symbol of Yunnan Pavilion, which is not just a place, but a province. The Yunnan Pavilion is a symbol of Chinese culture.